1982 LION

VOLUME LVII

LUDLOW HIGH SCHOOL

LUDLOW, MASSACHUSETTS

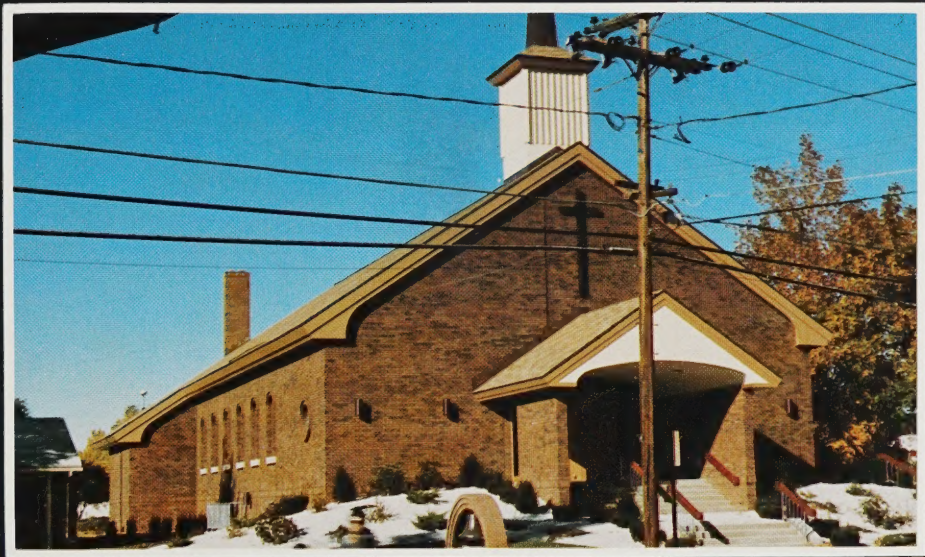

When the element of time robs us of each other, how will we respond?

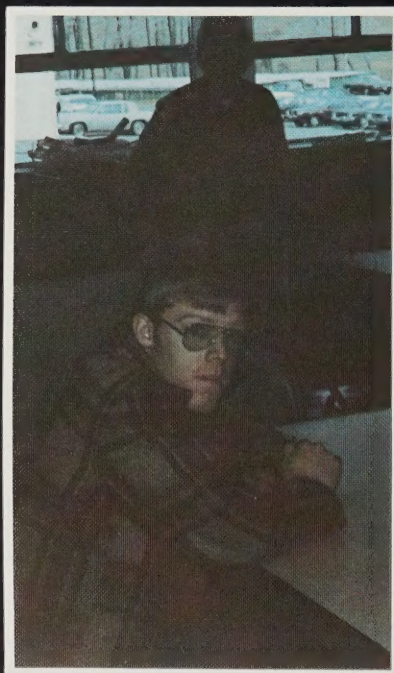

Will we reminisce about the days spent in our tiny corner of the world?

Departure is truly a sad time.

For no longer may we seek shelter
here.

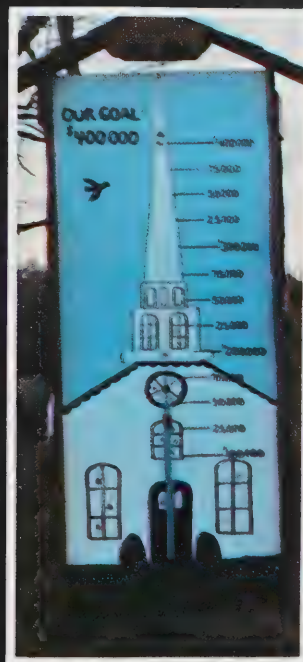

It is now that we must halt the crime of our indifference.

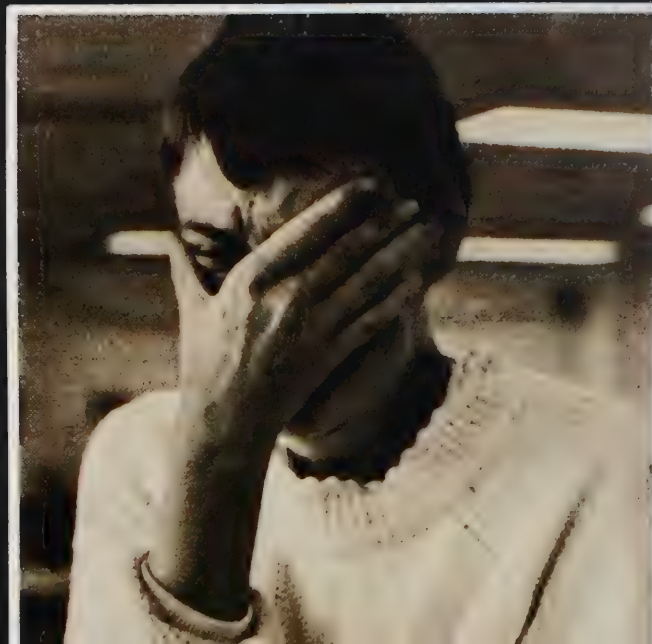

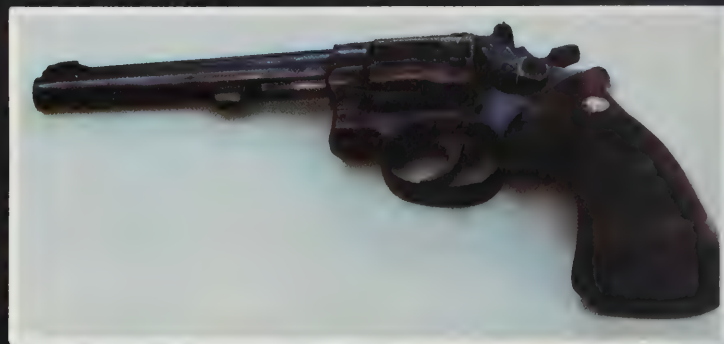

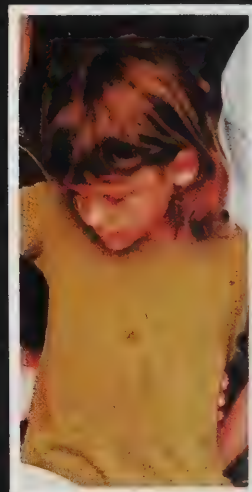

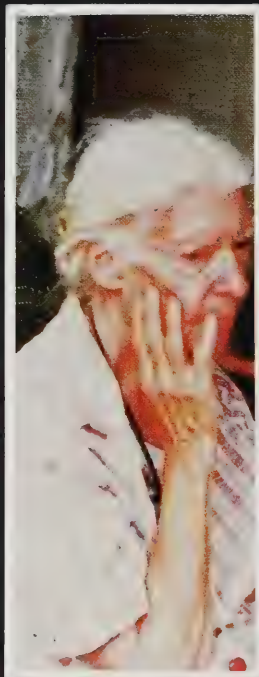

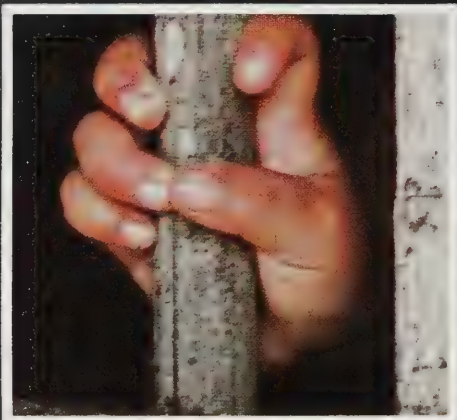

We have been challenged close to home, yet failed to respond,

But the problems that we now face cannot go unanswered; they are already here.

We must reject the compelling whispers of apathy and answer the noble call of duty.

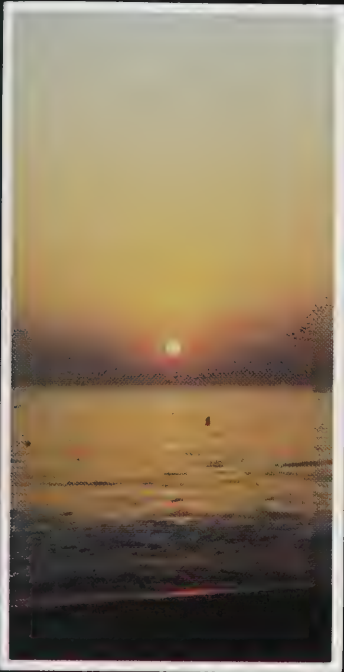

We cannot be split by differences in age, religion, or dogma

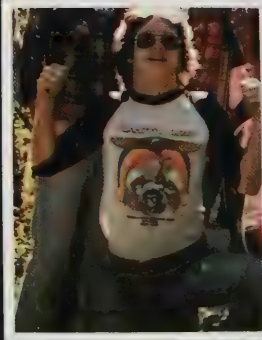

For it is only as citizens of Mother Earth that we can solve our ills

And from this time forward

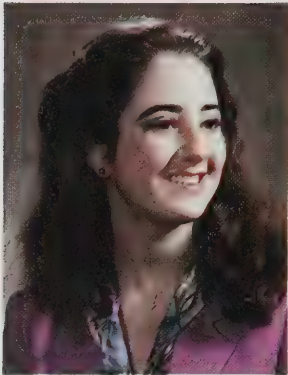

The challenge is issued.

FANTASTIC FRESHMEN

The freshmen class orientation was presented this year by the class of 1983. Many students asked, "why the juniors"? The reason was that the freshmen advisors wanted a two-year commitment of joint activities between the two classes.

With the help of their advisors, over 150 juniors each became big brothers or big sisters to a number of frosh students. Each freshman was given a button that had a number and the slogan "FRESHMEN ARE FANTASTIC". Random numbers were chosen, and prizes were awarded to the winners.

The class of 1983 planned other events such as a lunch together with their little brothers and sisters, a show with various skits and songs to welcome the freshmen, and the nomination and selection of Mr. and Miss Freshman.

Culminating the week's activities, a frosh-junior dance was held on Friday night. Refreshments and good records added to the evening's magic. The success of the week left the juniors confidently planning for their yearly events, and the freshmen feeling "fantastic".

LONG MAY YOU RUN

The Ludlow fall pep rally and Booster day dance were held on different days this year due to a teacher's convention on Friday. On Thursday afternoon, a pep rally was held to honor the fall sports teams and allow each class to represent itself as the most spirited. At the end of the rally there were many hoarse throats.

On September 25, the Booster dance was held. The night began with the traditional burning of a dummy, followed by an evening of rock music by ARA-BUS. The student council sponsored this dance and many students worked at the refreshment stand.

THE LION'S SHARE

Beginning Wednesday, October 7, The Ludlow Public Schools sponsored a series of support seminars for the parents and legal guardians of teenagers attending Ludlow High School and Paul R. Baird Junior High School.

For five consecutive Wednesday nights, parents and guardians heard lectures on the following topics: October 7 "The Lifestage of Adolescence" and "The Adolescent and Religion." October 14, "The Adolescent, Drugs, and Alcohol" and "The Adolescent and the Law." October 21, "Adolescent Mental and Physical Health" and "The Adolescent and Human Sexuality." October 28, "The Adolescent and life at home" and "The Adolescent, His Music, and Other Interests" and "Building and Sustaining the Adolescent Self-Image." Each topic was dealt with by a professional who shared his knowledge and experience with the particular subject. Tape recordings of students' opinions were heard, and the parents would then break up into small groups to enter class rooms to exchange ideas on the subject matter. These discussions were guided by teachers from Ludlow High School, of whom there were 35 volunteers.

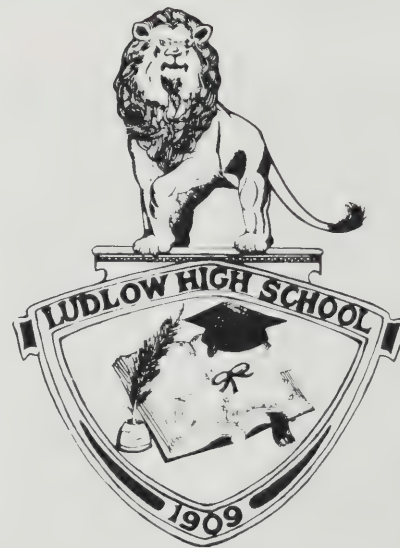

The series was initiated by Mr. Charles Bradshaw, a teacher at Ludlow High School. The seminars were an attempt to bridge the gap between two important groups. The "Lion's Share" ultimately proved to be a resounding success and plans for a continuation of the series are tentative.

"NIGHT OF THE LIVING DEAD"

On October 30, the Senior Class held a Halloween Costume Party. This event held only for the Juniors and Seniors, displayed the imagination of both classes. There were many unusual costumes, adding an air of mysteriousness to the evening. As the night progressed, the participants were judged, and winners of the costume contest were announced. Records and refreshments made this night complete.

SOCCER

The Ludlow High School soccer team once again upheld the proud tradition of soccer in this town, compiling a final record of 12-5-2.

Although chosen by some to finish low in their division this year, the senior-laden Lions were unbeaten in their first five games. Then injuries beset them and midway through the season the team found itself in danger of not making the Western Mass. tournament for the first time in years.

However, the Lions caught fire in the final weeks, winning five of their last six games to qualify for the tournament. Hustle, desire, and determination were the catalysts for winning the stretch that included victories over Division I powers Classical, Minnechaug, and Cathedral.

In the Western Mass. tournament, the team was not seeded high enough to warrant a home game, so it had to travel to Amherst for the quarter final game. The hungry Lions came from behind to win, 3-2. Scoring were Manny Goncalves, Chris Kolodziey, and Fred Dias.

The semi final game was played against Cathedral, the league champion and number 1 seed. Going into the fourth quarter the Lions trailed 1-0 and things looked bleak until Chris Kolodziey scored the tying goal to send the game into overtime. There were many tense moments until Tri-Captain Tony Vital scored for Ludlow in the fifth overtime period. The exhausted hero was carried from the field by his jubilant teammates.

After conquering the hated Panthers, Ludlow could not maintain the emotional or physical level for the final game against East Longmeadow, and was defeated, 3-2.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year's Cross Country team needed consistent performances from all of its members in every cross country meet. The Cross Country team had four seniors, all of whom contributed greatly to the Lion cause. The team was headed by seniors Jeff Clough and Larry Leclerc. These two seniors were the team's most consistent performers, with both individuals scoring in six of the meets. Paul Tierney chipped in by scoring in three meets while Debbie Pilon also helped lead the Lions. The team was also led by strong performances from their underclassmen. Junior Rich Dzierwinski led the team by scoring in seven meets, while junior classmate Ron Wheeler also contributed by scoring in six of the cross country meets. The Cross Country team received help from another underclassman; freshman Jim Germain contributed by scoring in five of the meets.

GIRLS' SOCCER

The Ludlow High varsity girls soccer team completed their season with a 5-8-2 record. Their strong effort kept the team in play-off contention until the final weeks of the season. The team was led by senior tri-captains Debbie Harackiewicz, Jean Ziemba, and Mary Molé and supported by seniors Sharon Papuga, Cheryl Stasiowski, and Elaine Bourbeau. The rest of the squad was comprised of two juniors, four sophomores, and ten freshmen.

Captain Debbie not only led the team in scoring, but also won the Division I scoring crown. She was closely followed in scoring by Elaine Bourbeau the entire season. Debbie was chosen All-Western Mass. for the fourth consecutive year. Elaine was a unanimous choice for second team All-Western Mass. honors. In addition, the girls chosen for all-league status were Debbie Harackiewicz, Elaine Bourbeau, and Sharon Papuga.

Certainly the fine inspiration and leadership provided by the seniors gave Coach Lou Casagrande's returning under-classmen a solid example to follow in their future years of soccer at Ludlow High School.

LIONS' FOOTBALL

This year's football team, after early season setbacks, compiled a 4-5 record under the guidance of head coach Steve Marino. The Lions started the season with high hopes, but key injuries and last second losses denied the Lions a winning season.

The Lions started the season against Division I power Agawam, a game in which they lost senior Dave Moorhouse and junior Tim Marini. But even though the Lions had many injuries, the team showed its depth by consistently coming up with able replacements. Players like seniors Steve Gosciemski and Rodney Walker proved invaluable throughout the season. Although the Lions did get off to a slow start, the team rebounded by winning their last two games of the season. The wins can easily be attributed to an overwhelming defense which only allowed seven points in the two games. The defense, coached by Carl Ericksburg and Pete Mierzwa, was led by senior Dan Lavoie. The Lion front line was headed by senior tri-captain Ken Vogal plus John Carolan and Kris Stocker. The defensive secondary, which included seniors Rick Fioravanti and tri-captain John Keough, finally gelled by intercepting six passes in the last two games. Seniors Reid Perham and Bill Comtois also contributed to the team effort.

The climax of the season was on Thanksgiving Day, when the Lions defeated arch-rival Palmer 21-0. The offense, with senior quarterback Steve Niec at the helm, opened with 21 first half points. Junior Tim Marini sparked the offensive attack while the defense shutout of the season.

WHAT A CIVIC GROUP!

The Class of 1984, in keeping with their civic standing, took on two projects during the year. These projects were a charity dance/drive and the Adopt-a-Grandparent program.

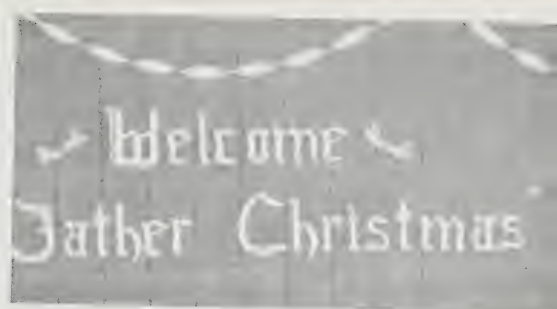

The Charity dance/drive was a week-long collection of money by class for the benefit of the Children's Language Institute. The Sophomore class finished first, led by Cathy Nowakowski and Dean Perham, with a total of $366.14. The Freshmen class, led by Kathy Keough and Keith Messier, was second with $354.08. The Senior class was next with Sally Mastalerz and Mike Natario collecting 236.00. Last, but not least, was the Junior class, headed by Rhonda Gaumond and Tim Marini, who collected $210.92.

In addition to these class contributions, the dance proceeds and even some money from the 1984 class treasury were added. The result was a $1500.00 check presented to the Institute.

The Adopt a Grandparent Program was a year-long activity. Several Sophomores would visit the Birch Manor Nursing Home every other Wednesday. They would hold parties or just sit and chat with the older folks. Those super Sophomores are always willing to help the community.

The Senior Christmas banquet, entitled "WELCOME FATHER CHRISTMAS", was held this year on December 18. The evening began with a buffet-style dinner. Following the meal, random ticket numbers were chosen and prizes were awarded. Joke gifts were then given to the class advisors, and slides of seniors were shown. This wonderful evening ended with dancing and caroling. It was a night full of good times which will always be memorable to those who attended.

CHRISTMAS WITH SENIOR CITIZENS

On December 23, the senior class put on a Christmas party for the Senior Citizens of Ludlow. The party was held at the Senior Citizen center. The seniors first served a luncheon to the Senior Citizens, and then dessert with coffee was served. Following the meal, entertainment was provided in the form of Christmas carols sung by students and Golden Agers alike. Some short solos were also performed by a few members of the senior class. Finally, presents, which were donated by area businesses, were given to each older but younger boy and girl by Santa and his elves. The day was one which brought joy and togetherness into the hearts of those who attended.

GIVE BLOOD

On January 18, the Student Council sponsored a blood mobile. Lynne Maziarz, Kathy Savoie, and Patty McDonald were the chairmen of the worthwhile event. To attract donors, everyone who gave blood was entered in a raffle to win Red Sox and Bruins game tickets. The tickets were donated by Chmura's Bakery, Jesse's, Treas. crane, Rep. Mullins, Sen. Reilly, and Gov. King. In addition to the donors that day, seven varsity sports members took time out of the previous weekend to give the gift of life. The result was 171 pints — a new Western Mass. high school Bloodmobile record. The record-breaking drive would not have been possible without support and understanding from the faculty, the students, and the town of Ludlow.

LIONS SHOW IN THE SNOW

On January 20, 1982, the Student Council sponsored the winter booster day "Show in the Snow." A pep rally was held during the day honoring the Winter Sports Teams. Players and coaches from all teams were introduced and cheerleaders urged the crowd on. On the same evening, a dance was held in the gymnasium. Providing the entertainment was Gary James of WARE radio.

LIONS' SKI TEAM

Coach Lee Kenworthy, Scott Maziarz, Scott Bode, Bob Vital, Kris Stocker, Todd Douville, Jim Szczbak, Todd Galis, Paul Tierney, Walter Les, Coach Steve Bode.

This year's ski team, with a brief four year history, posted the club's finest season since its formation. The team was coached by Lee Kenworthy and was assisted by Steve Bode. The team, in their division, came in second only to Amherst. Throughout the season, senior captain Paul Tierney and senior Wally Les led the downhill racers. Senior Kris Stocker also came up with good performances during the season. Juniors Tod Douville and Todd Galis were very strong throughout the year, both of whom should lead next year's team. This year was the first year in which the ski team made it to the state championships in Haverhill, Ma. Even though the team did not fare well in the state competition, the team did very well in the Western Mass. meets. Senior Paul Tierney turned in a fine performance by finishing third in the standings. Senior Wally Les, who missed the last ski season, placed sixth in the standings.

LUDLOW HOCKEY

For the first time in the history of Ludlow High, the hockey team came up Western Mass. Champions. Coach Dick Malek, returning as coach after four years of absence, guided his team through one of its most exciting seasons ever.

The Lions came out this season storming, getting victories over Chicopee Comp, Minnechaug, and tying Amherst Regional, but a mid-season slow-down put the division title in jeopardy. Even though the Lions did have a slow-down, they were not out of the race because the balanced Fay Division had no team pulling away.

In the last third of their season the Lion skaters made their move. Winning the last six league games over Chicopee Comp, Putnam, Chicopee, Minnechaug, Amherst, and Chicopee again, the Lions were able to pull into first place for the division title.

The key victory during the winning streak was against Amherst. With the season coming to a close, Amherst was in first place and could have pulled away with a victory over Ludlow, but a tight defense by senior captains Dave Rossi and Dan Lavoie, plus fine playing by Scott Courtney held the Amherst offense in check. Strong goal-tending by Kevin Picard, who split the year's net-minding with Rich Malek, helped the Lions. Dean Adam sparked the Lion's offense in the game.

The special ingredient to this year's team, according to Coach Malek, was that every player contributed in each game. Seniors Rich Pickreign and Ken Mastalerz were the team's penalty killers, while Craig McKay, Steve Leblanc, and John Bourcier were strong throughout the season.

Ken Mastalerz was one of the Lions' leading penalty killers.

The Lions easily breezed through their first two playoff games against Mt. Greylock and Easthampton. Unfortunately, the final game against Greenfield was a different story. Greenfield pulled ahead in the first period 3-1. But the Lions, sparked by senior captain Dean Adam, came back to tie the game at 3-3. Greenfield got the final tally of the second period for a 4-3 lead. The Lions came out in the third period and took control of the game, scoring three times for a 6-4 lead. But with less than two minutes left in the game, Greenfield scored twice to tie the game. Rich Malek, who had 35 saves in the game, stopped a Greenfield breakaway with three seconds remaining to send the game into overtime. Ken Mastalarz's goal at 1:11 of the second overtime gave Ludlow the 7-6 victory. Both Dean Adam and John Bourcier led the Lions with two goals apiece, while Rich Pickreign and Mike Zaranek had the other Lion tallies. Seniors Dan Lavole and Dave Rossi on defense helped give the Ludlow High hockey team their first Western Mass Championship.

LIONS' WRESTLING

The Wrestling team, with first year coaches Larry Barbetta and Shaun Carey had another fine season. Even though the team did have a high turnout, most of its members were underclassmen. The team, even though it was young, still managed to equal the victory total of last year. The Lions came up with victories over Northampton, Amherst, Granby, and Southwick. The only two senior members on the club were Hal Glanville and Matt Tranquilli. Both seniors provided the leadership and effort which the team needed. Captains Dave Haluch, with consistent wins, led the Lions to their victories. The team also benefited from junior Dave Carolan, who gave great performances in every match.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball team, coached by Phil Dalessio, had a tough 1-13 season. Playing in a stronger league this season, the inexperienced team gave a team effort in every game, including a 27-25 victory over Belchertown. Junior tri-captain Laurie Melbourne was the team's leading scorer, while captains Kim Jurkowski and Kim Les always gave full effort in every game. Debbie Pilon, who was the team's only senior member, provided leadership throughout the season. The underclassmen who played key roles during the season were freshmen Amy LaFortune, Tessa Chenaille, Sue Melbourne, and Irene Swiatlowski. With the entire starting team returning next year, the future looks good for the Lions.

LEAGUE CHAMPS

The 1981-82 basketball season was the most successful one for Ludlow in 15 years. The team won the league championship and qualified for the Western Mass. tournament. Coach Bill Kolodziey led the Lions through the year which re-established Ludlow as a basketball contender in Western Massachusetts.

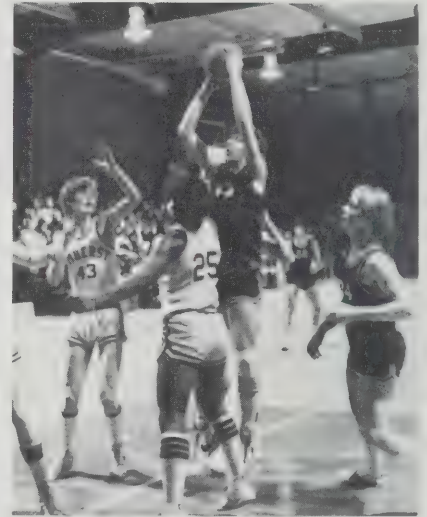

Among the many reasons for the Lions' success was captain Jim Chenaille. Jim, who was also the team's Most Valuable Player, averaged 12 points and 11 rebounds a game while shooting 53 percent from the field. Perhaps the most gifted player on the team was Chris Kolodziey, who was an all-Western Mass. selection. Not only was Chris the leading scorer, but he was also a team player, handing out 5.4 assists per game. Greg Kolodziey was the team's point guard, who had the task of setting up the Lions' plays. Senior captain Paul Taylor, who was the workhorse for the team, and power forward Bob Maynard rounded out the starting five. Captain Steve Niec was always ready to contribute to the team as he often provided the spark to lift the Lions. Senior Russ Royce always gave the team a contribution whenever he was called upon. The Lions, after two losses each to Ware and Southwick caught fire, winning their next 13 games in a row. The season culminated with a victory over Monson that clinched the Pioneer Valley D Division Championship.

SENIORS SET STAGE

The Class of 1982 says

"These are the Best of Times"

The Class of 1982 presented "These Are the Best of Times" February 11, 12, 13. The show was financially the most successful show ever, smashing all previous records. The seniors, under advisor James L. Martin and student-coordinators Lisa Tryba and Reid Perham, kicked the show off on Thursday, February 11, with a special presentation to the senior citizens of the town, followed by a special party for the elderly. The "Golden Agers" enjoyed the party thanks to the hard work of senior-class advisor Miss Connolly, and seniors Sally Mastalerz and Mike Natario. This year's show opened with "Everything's Coming Up Roses" sung by the class. The show featured two major production numbers, "The Roaring Twenties" and "The Aggie Boys", two acts which will go down in Ludlow's off-Broadway Hall-of-Fame. This year's Masters of Ceremonies were John Carolan and Dianne McVeigh, who added a touch of class. The grand-finale of the show began with "Everything's Coming Up Roses" and was followed by a slide presentation of "These Are the Best of Times" and continued with "What I Did For Love", then once again ending with "Everything's Coming Up Roses". Special thanks goes to Mr. Martin in making our show successful. Also, thanks and love goes to Mrs. Carol Tierney and Mrs. Jean Aldrich, "Maggie P.I.", for all their dedication to the show and our class. The Class of 1982 thanks all involved and truly believes that "These Are the Best of Times."

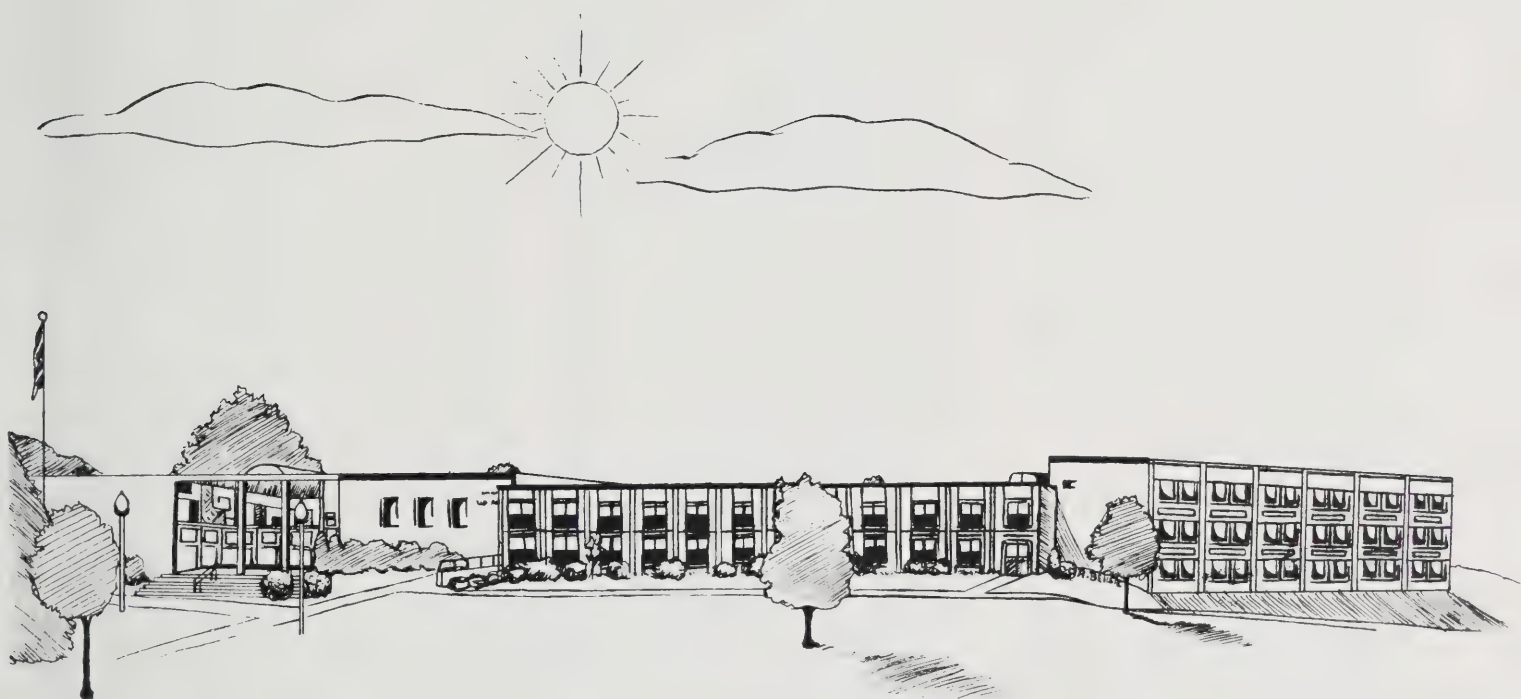

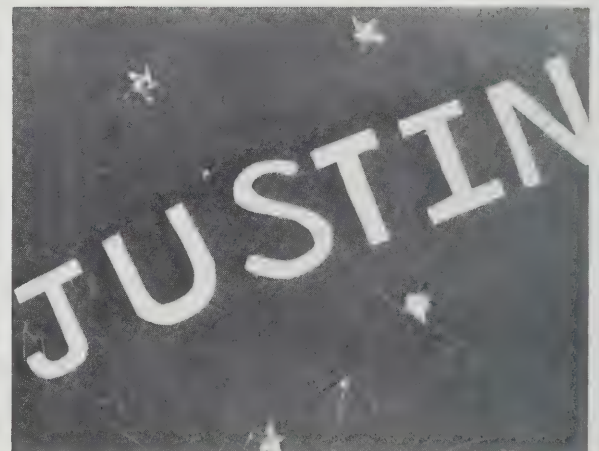

SPRING

JUNIOR DANCE "JUST IN TIME"

This year the Junior Dance was held on March 12, 1982. The dance was a huge success as the class, under President Kathy Leitao and the Junior Executive Board, combined to make the night an experience. The music was provided by Justin, one of the premier club bands in the area. The band rocked the gym for three hours as they played songs from Led Zeppelin, the Rolling Stones, and J. Geils, along with some of their own material. Many members of the Class of 1983, along with their advisors, put in time and effort to bring to Ludlow an enjoyable dance.

SOPHOMORES HOLD SUCCESSFUL BANQUET

On March 19 the Class of 1984 sponsored the Sophomore Banquet. The theme for this year's banquet was "Sweet Dreams". The night was a success as committee members, advisors, and class officers pulled together to make the evening an enjoyable one. The night had special significance for the sophomores because, as President Gary Martin put it, "This is the first time we've been together as a class since we've been in high school."

SECOND BLOODMOBILE HELD

On April 30, the Student Council held its second bloodmobile of the year to benefit the American Red Cross. The blood drive was held in the gymnasium as townspeople and students gathered to give the gift of life. This bloodmobile was vitally important to the region because a recent spring snowstorm had cancelled all other blood drives and created a demand for more blood. Ludlow High School helped alleviate the situation by collecting 120 pints of blood. Lynne Maziarz served as Student Council chairman of this event.

FRESHMAN DANCE

CLASS OF 1985 JUST THE BEGINNING

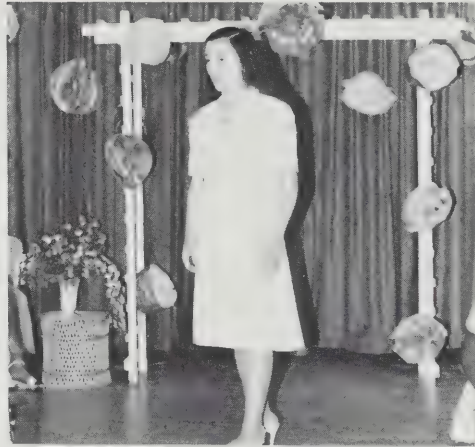

On April 30 the annual Freshman Dance was held in the high school cafeteria. The dance was a success as many ninth graders attended the affair. Music was provided by "NOT FRAGILE", a rock n' roll group consisting of Ludlow High Juniors Steve Bell, Jim Circosta, Jeff Hebert, and Fred Lord.

FASHION SHOW

In May the Home Economics Department sponsored its annual Spring Fashion Show. This was the 15th year such an event was held. The show, which was under the direction of Mrs. Patullo, Mrs. Kavka, and Mrs. Partyka is an opportunity for students to model the clothes they have made during the year. The students who modeled also wrote their own commentary and decorated their outfits. Foods and refreshments were served by students from cooking classes.

THE JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

On May 21 Ludlow High School held its annual prom at Chez Josef in Agawam. The evening started at 6:00 p.m. as 139 couples entered to participate in a social hour. Dinner was served at 7:00 and dancing to "The Who's Who" was from 8:00 until 12:00. The annual prom, which was run by class advisors Mr. Jerome Linehan, Mr. James Martin, Miss Margaret Reilly, and Miss Katherine Reilly, and by the Junior Executive Board had as its theme "Imagine ... " The Prom had several new twists this year. A head table was installed for administrators, class advisors, and the president of the Junior Class and her escort. After many years of absence, a grand promenade was reinstated. A reception line, which included Principal James Cavallo and the Administration and President Kathy Leitao received the Promenade. A prom program, which listed all of the attending couples, was also a new feature. Along with the changes instituted at the Prom was the traditional capping of the evening, the announcement of the Prom Queen and her court. Chosen as Prom Queen for 1982 was Kathy Jerz. Her court consisted of Seniors Kris Manewich and Mary Calderigi, and Juniors Judy Dubour and Cheryl Savoia.

LIONS' GOLF TEAM

It was another great year for the Lion's golf team. The team, under the direction of coach Larry Holdsworth, compiled a record of 12-4. A record which was good enough to once again enable the team to enter the Western Mass. tournament. The Lion golfers were led by senior sensation Wally Les, who is known as one of the premier golfers in Western Mass. But Wally was not the only leader of the team. Juniors Bob Dumaine and Chris Kolodziey, who were 2 and 3 men respectively, consistently led the Lions in every match. Senior newcomers Dave Rossi and Jim Soloio each turned out to be pleasant surprises for the team as each played well throughout the year. Seniors Mike Laurin and Frank Murray also chipped in during the year as did sophomore alternate Mark Croughwell. Even though the team lost in the Western Mass. tournament, they did have a very good showing. The team was again led by Wally Les, who lost in sudden death in the individual tournament, but shot the best round in the teams tournament.

LIONS' TRACK TEAM

Even though this year's track team did not win a meet, they did have some fine individual performances throughout the year. The team was handicapped from the start, only having 23 players for their campaign. The team, led by a fine group of seniors, did manage respectable performances in all of their meets. The senior group included John Dubois, Craig McKay, and Tony Jorge, all of whom helped the team with good performances throughout the year. Debbie Pilon and Mary Mole, the only two girls on the club, gave inspiration to all team members. Also, senior Bill Comtois, who was the Division II shotput champ, was the highlight of the year. Other team members who gave fine efforts were sophomore Peter Mole and Juniors Tim Marini and Rich Dzierwinski. The season did have one sad note. Coach David Larrivee coached his last season for the track team. His coaching abilities will be missed by all at Ludlow High.

LIONS' TENNIS TEAM

The 1982 season for the varsity tennis team was another good year. The team, headed by coach Stephen Boyer, managed a 9-4 record for the season. This record was good enough for the team to enter the Western Mass. tournament for the second straight year. After dropping three of their first four matches this season, the team put together a mid-season six game winning streak which carried the team through the rest of the year. The team was led by senior Paul Gois, who was outstanding throughout the year. Girls Jana Bellorini, Theresa Laurin, and Shirley Batista also lead the team during the year. Other contributing members on the squad were Jim Ryczek and Tony Santos.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL

The varsity girls softball team, coached by Steve Marino, began their season on a promising note by beating Northampton 17-11. As the season progressed, however, the team's lack of experience caused them to lose many games by only small margins. For example, both games against E. Longmeadow (a top-ranking team) were very close and the younger team members tried their best to keep up with the more experienced players from E. Longmeadow. Encouragement and leadership on the team was provided by the only two seniors, Michelle Marion and Debbie Harackiewicz. Outstanding underclassmen were Lori Melbourne, Kim Les, Donna Grimshaw, Amy LaFortune, Kathy Forgie, and Michelle Forgie. These players will provide a basis for next year's team, which looks to be very promising and successful.

LIONS' BASEBALL TEAM

With a solid nucleus of returning seniors and juniors, the Lions' baseball team had high pre-season expectations. But a mid-season slump, in which the Lions lost six straight games crippled the team's chances for post-season play. The Lions, headed by coach Bill Kolodzley, sported a 6-10 record. The team was led by senior captain Bill Craven who had an outstanding year both pitching and offensively. Bill's record of 4-1 was tops on the Lion's staff, while his .303 batting average was second best on the team. The team's leader this year with the bat was junior Steve Bell, who hit at a .455 clip. Senior Greg Kolodzley was the third Lion hitter to bat over .300 by finishing the year at .302. Other players who played key roles during the season were juniors Mike Zaranek, Tim Mullins, Steve Skowronek, Brian Berry and Keith Chenaille.

ADMINISTRATION

The Administration of Ludlow High School consists of Principal James Cavallo and Vice-Principals William Rooney and Joseph Andreis. During the last few years, the administration has been busy making changes in school policy while enforcing the changes made by the School Committee. Among the changes made by the Administration include the curtailment of senior privileges and the institution of hall monitors. The changes made by the School Committee, which the administration must enforce, include parking and smoking bans and the institution of a 30 day absence rule. Although these changes have many critics among the students for their reactionary tone, the administration has stated that these changes have made its job easier and the functioning of the school more orderly.

SENIOR WEEK!

SENIOR OLYMPICS

On Wednesday, June 2, the Senior Olympics were held. After munching on grinders and pizza, the seniors proceeded to the athletic field for some friendly competition.

TRIP TO MOUNTAIN PARK

For Thursday, June 3, Senior Field Trip was planned, but the location was stealthily kept hidden by the four advisors. Even on the day of the trip, seniors still did not know where they were headed. After a diversion to Whitney Park (and Mr. Marino's house), the pleasantly surprised seniors arrived at their destination for a day at Mountain Park.

CLASS DAY

Class Day activities were held on Friday, June 4 in the high school auditorium. The assembly began with the wind ensemble, under the direction of Mr. Royce Layman, performing "Pomp & Circumstance" as the Seniors filed in. Next the invocation was delivered by Father Charles Kuzmeski. Seniors and guests were welcomed by Senior Class President Lynne Maziarz. Mr. Cavallo made a short speech and then presented the Class to Dr. Tierney who gave an informative speech. Tom Dunn delivered the "State of the School Address," followed by Lynn Letourneau delivering the Salutatorian Address. A quick review of the history of the Class of 1982 was given by a few members of the senior class.

Next, Mr. Cavallo, Mr. Rooney, and Mr. Andreis presented awards and scholarships to the seniors. Then Greta Pinnsonault read the class poem which she wrote. The seniors exited the auditorium to the front of the school where each senior helped to plant a tree which will serve as a symbol of the Class of 1982 for all to see.

SENIOR BANQUET

On June 4 the Senior Class presented the annual Senior Banquet entitled "There Are Places I'll Remember." The banquet, held at Valle's Steak House, was a last chance for the Class of 1982 to gather together for a fun-filled evening of dinner and dancing. After dinner a senior slide show was shown set to the music of "There Are Places I'll Remember" and "These Are the Best of Times". As an added attraction, the class ballot was read by class president Lynne Maziarz with humorous gifts for each winner. Another traditional event that took place on this memorable night was the distribution of the Senior edition of The Cub which kept everyone busy reading the wills and prophecies of the seniors. Among the many events, the senior class advisors announced the winners of the Senior Olympics and awarded prizes to the lucky winners. The second place team was Bob Dill and Jerry Dubour while first place was shared by two teams: Manny Goncalves and Domingos Goncalves and the female team of Debbie Harackiewicz and Jean Ziemba. After all the events took place, seniors danced the night away to the music of "The Lasers." Teachers, administration, advisors, and especially the seniors spent an enjoyable evening that will be remembered by all who attended.

Senior Assembly is an annual program put on by the Junior Class, under the direction of Mr. Charles Bradshaw, as a farewell to the departing seniors; a day marked by a range of emotions. The seniors entered the auditorium to the theme from "Chariots of Fire" and to the traditional "Scarborough Fair," at which time they were presented with carnations. After a "Reminiscence" by Mr. Joseph Ramos and Mrs. Marguerite Surprenant of the days spent at Ludlow High, a movie entitled "Out Here on Our Own" was presented. Following the invocation by Auxiliary Bishop Leo O'Neil, Senior Eileen Chevalier gave tribute to the beauty of the United States by singing "This Land is Our Land" and "New York, New York." Senior John Bourcier then presented the class gift, a new trophy case. The theme of the Assembly, the sun, was portrayed by four seniors as they demonstrated their musical ability. Jeff Bolow and Reid Perham sang "Sunshine on My Shoulders" and Bob Starzyk and Robin Babineau played "Here Comes the Sun." After a moving speech by Faculty Chair Mr. Howard Burrage, the seniors were then treated to a glimpse of what awaited them at the Pearly Gates where they finally "got what they deserved." After the presentation of letters to parents, Faculty Chair Mrs. Frances Libiszewski gave her views on education. Following the faculty's "Last Word" and administration's "Academy Awards," came the symbolic passing of the peacepipe and an inspirational speech by Class President Lynne Maziarz. From Leslie Connery, daughter of teacher Brian Connery, came a look to the future as she sang "Tomorrow." The Assembly then ended on a happy note as the seniors released their balloons, and with them, their high school days.

CLASS ADVISORS

To say that the job of being an advisor to a class is a considerable task is to understate the facts. As even the most casual observer can see, the vast responsibilities undertaken by a class advisor require a great deal of work. The class of 1982 has been blessed with four such people who unselfishly gave their time and effort to enrich our high school years. Mrs. Toni Mancuso, Mr. Richard McNerny, Mrs. Sandra Monette, and Miss Marion Connolly have all contributed to the good times that we enjoyed. The planning, the paperwork, the waiting, and the worrying are all past, but the members of the class of 1982 will always remember the sacrifice of these four very special people.

FACULTY CHAIRS

The faculty chair is an award given annually to "that special teacher" by the seniors.

Mr. Howard Burrage

Mr. Howard Burrage was chosen as this year's co-winner of the second annual Faculty Chair award. Mr. Burrage is a member of the English Department who shows his versatile teaching style by instructing everything from Industrial Arts English to English Literature. He feels that teaching self-responsibility is a most important role for a teacher in today's high schools to assume. His classroom manner has been described as "easy-going with high demanding standards."; Mr. Burrage returns the warm feelings our class has for him by calling the Class of 1982 "a great class."

Mrs. Frances Libiszewski

Mrs. Frances Libiszewski was chosen as co-winner of the Faculty Chair award because of the recognition by seniors of her special teaching methods. Mrs. Libiszewski, the only psychology and sociology teacher in the building, feels that the acknowledgement of students as individuals is a vital part of a teacher's job. She feels that passing on this awareness to students while letting them realize their own self-importance is significant to an adolescent's education. Through her classes, Mrs. Libiszewski has come to know many of the members of the class of 1982, and the affectionate feelings held by her toward that class are entirely mutual.

Editor's Message

As I write this it is now the morning of the last deadline. We have worked through the night and have succeeded in finishing the book on time. Our yearbook office (my cellar) is a shambles, the staff is sleepy, and the tv is flickering. My love to the Class of 1982, and if you'll excuse me I'm going to get some sleep.
